Fr Jack

Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross. I have said it before and I will say it again. Every home/house should have a crucifix in the living room. Pride of place for all to see. But more importantly for the residents to see, especially children. A casual look at the cross from time to time can be a great reminder of what the Lord has done for us. And a reminder to say a prayer, if only a brief one.

Loneliness and the feeling of being unwanted is the most terrible poverty.

Mother Theresa..

2nd Collection next week is for the Catholic Agency for the Support of Evangelization

STAIRS

Sorry about the disruption of the stairs going into my house. However it was condemned and unsafe so had to be done. Small bit of a hiccup at the moment. May delay things a bit, but we will get there.

Seniors Get Together

Every Thursday afternoon at 2pm a group of seniors get together in the hall for a chat and cupa. male and female all welcome and you will not be asked for your birth certificate..

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) Saturday

Started yesterday 13th September and will run every Saturday at 4pm in church.

All Welcome. "

Red Box Holders

Those who have a red box at home, please take one of the brown envelopes at the back of the church. They contain the Autumn issue of the quarterly magazine. Please empty the red box into the brown envelope, write your name and address on it an return to the church after any of the Masses.

Service for Hope and Healing, on the 24th September 2025 at 6.30pm at St George;s Cathedral.

Archbishop John Wilson and the Safeguarding team, invite all our parishioners to join us, for the service for all those that have been harmed by abuse. The service is to express the archdiocese's commitment to all those that have been harmed, their family and friends and to come together as a community and demonstrate our solidarity for those harmed. "
