Fr Jack

As I was saying last week, "Praise God by raising the poor." carrying on the same theme this week between rich and poor, the rich man and Lazarus. Let's be clear, money is good and can help a million situations. But, I think Jesus is referring to the fact that love of money can sometimes blind us to the needs of others. Again giving handouts is not necessarily the right answer. Amos, says, "People that are not grieved over the ruin of "Joseph." People that are not grieved over the state of the world as it is at the moment."

I suggest supporting a worthwhile charity or two where your money will be used wisely.

Choose to make the rest of your life
The best of your life.

Thanks

Dear parishioners,
We, the women from CWO English Martyrs Parish Walworth, extend our heartfelt thanks for the warm welcome you gave us. Special thanks to the parish priest for granting our request.
As we move forward, we will convene a meeting to outline our objectives as women of St James The Great in the ministry of the Holy Catholic Church.

Some potential activities include:

- Praying the Rosary daily and nurturing faith in our families
 - Promoting Fair Trade, inspired by Christ's teachings
 - Actively participating in parish life and ministry
- We look forward to working together in faith and service.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Sagar Mendy

President English Martyrs Catholic Women
Organisation.
