Fr Jack

Thousands of years ago Baruch had a beautiful vision, a vision of a great time to come: 'Put on the dress of a bride and not a funeral dress. Put a crown of gold on your head.' He has unbelievable hope; things are going to get better.

Jesus still picked up on this, with a slight difference I would say - Hope through suffering - probably more realistic.

"The grain of wheat must die before it can bring forth fruit."

This is our time of advent, a time of preparation. A little penance/confession, a bit of fasting for appreciation of our fellow pilgrims in worse conditions.

Preparing for the joy of the birth of the child within in us.

Then Christmas can truly be Christmas, Christ within is.

And that surely will bring about the reign of the Lord.

I can conquer everything with one hand
as long as you are holding the other one

Carol Service

Our own children from St James' will be singing carols at the Aylesham Centre Peckham from 3.45–4.15pm on Tuesday 11th December.

I'm sure they would appreciate your support.

St George's Cathedral Carol Service

Thursday 13th December at 7.30 pm.

All are warmly invited to attend.

Entry is free.

Brass Instruments

A number of young people have already organised themselves into a brass band. They are good musicians and we wish them success. However some have no instruments. Have you got any lying around the house, you don't need?

Christmas Celebration

Thursday 13th December at 12 noon
We are having our Christmas party in Caravaggio's in Camberwell.

£25 for the traditional Christmas dinner.

A few places still available. Don't let money be a problem. See Fr Jack.
