Babies for Baptism

Mass as usual at 7pm on Wednesday evening. Parents of babies will be attending with meeting afterwards.

Bereavements

It is with great sadness that we announce the deaths of two of our prominent parishioners:

Regina George - Requiem Wednesday 23rd January at 10.00am.

Andy Effiom - Requiem Wednesday 30th January at 11.30am.

Assuring the families of our prayers and support.

Brass

The young people who have started a brass band are really keen and could do with some help. Obviously somebody with music expertise would be ideal, but that may not be possible. Anyone willing to support them would be very much appreciated.

Fr JACK

The wise men met Jesus. They went home by a different way. In simple English it just means "If we do meet Jesus, nothing can ever still be the same, things change, I change. If I don't change then, I believe, you have really got to ask a serious question, "Have I really met Jesus?"

Meeting Jesus puts most if not all things in perspective. I see things with new glasses. I thought I saw before, but in the light of Jesus, new things have really taken over my life. More important things possess me. I know Christmas is gone, or has it? Yes the glitz and the food and presents have gone which means you really have missed Christmas. But Christmas is about Jesus which means He will be with us all the year around.

For the Christian, every day is Christmas Day. Enjoy the peace of the Lord with you and share it with others. Give peace as a present to others every day of the week.

THIS YEAR DO NOT MISTAKE ACTIVITY FOR ACHIEVEMENT.

Soul Food

Life in the Spirit Seminar

Leaflets at the back of church.

SPUC

(Society for the Protection of Unborn Children)

Next week we hope to have somebody to talk about their work and they'll be looking for support

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes in August

The Archbishop it seems will retire this year and the pilgrimage to Lourdes might be his swansong. He would like to go out on a high, by saying that every parish was represented in Lourdes. More details to follow, but please let me know if you may be interested.
