Fr JACK

Often, when parents want children baptised and I ask them 'Why?' sometimes there are strange answers, often they border on selfishness.

'Want him to go to heaven.' 'Want her to know God.' 'Want him to get into a Catholic school.' 'Want her to be safe.'

All about the child!!!

Jesus today is baptised, he is commissioned by the Father to start his public ministry, to go out and preach the love of the Father and to tell us how to live.

He came to establish the Kingdom of God on Earth, to show us how to live, so that we too may make the world a better place.

You join the army to fight for your country, you are baptised to become a soldier of Jesus Christ and join his army of people who want to make the world a better place for all of us.

We are baptised so that we can help Jesus to make the world a better place, so that we may help our brothers and sisters to find happiness by GIVING.

Plan for the future because that's where you will spend the rest of your life.

Pilgrimage to Fatima

Is anybody is interested in a Parish pilgrimage to Fatima for 5 days, probably sometime in May? If we get at least 25 people, it might work out cheaply, at £600 all in.

Or if there is interest in any other pilgrimage, suggestions would be welcome.

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes in August

The Archbishop it seems will retire this year and the pilgrimage to Lourdes might be his swansong. He would like to go out on a high, by saying that every parish was represented in Lourdes. More details to follow, but please let me know if you may be interested.

Diocesan Directories

Diocesan directories for 2019 are now available from Fr Jack for £3.00.
