We have responsibility before God to protect our Common Home

Pope Francis says that we have a responsibility before God to protect the earth, under constant attack from devastating effects of climate change, which requires a concrete response by all, as he addressed organizers of and participants in the Green&Blue Festival,

Fr Jack

"God loved the world so much that "Do this in memory of me." How often did I hear at a funeral, "we will never forget them." Yet within a few days Granny is totally forgotten. "At the going down of the sun, we will remember them." and as we are saying it we are bombing the hell out of people in another corner of the world. We surely have a short memory. So Jesus, totally aware of our inability to remember, told us to;- "Do this in memory of me." Keep the memory alive, Jesus says, never forget how good I have been to you and how much I love you. Thank God billions of people and priests have gathered together around the world to keep the Memory alive. Here in St James we do it nine times a week and the same world-wide. The memory of Jesus still lives on. Long may it continue. But for the above to be real and true we must keep loving people as much as he did. Visiting the sick. Visiting those in prison. Feeding the hungry. Giving drink to the thirsty. YES, AND WELCOMING THE STRANGER.

One pint of donated blood can save up to three lives

Day for Life – weekend of 17/18 June 2023

The 2023 Day for Life will seek to highlight the trauma caused by abortion, with the theme "Listen to Her". The message is an invitation to listen to the voice and story of a young Catholic woman who, after suffering the trauma of an abortion, found healing.

The Holy Father's own words in 2016 underline the gravity of abortion, but remind us, too, that nothing is beyond the mercy of God. Many in our society, but especially women, are affected by abortion and we want people to know they can find a welcome in the heart of the Church through the promise of hope and healing which is found in the Lord Jesus. A Novena of Prayer will be available on the CBCEW website which will lead up to the Day for Life. All resources, including the full message, may be accessed here: www.cbcew.org.uk/day-for-life
