FR JACK

From a baby to a king but not only a King but King of the Universe. Sounds awesome but the more important part of it is that He wants to be King of our Hearts. It is here that the King truly wants to reign. We may have very mixed and confused images of kings. They exist outside of us, but this king wants to live within us. When I live for others, for my husband or for my wife, for my children or my parents, for my parishioners or for each other, for the poor or the stranger, then I am not far from the Kingdom and the King reigns within me. When I am a person of integrity and honesty, generosity and cooperation then the King reigns within my heart. When I cooperate with the word of God that is called grace and I swim in a sea of grace. Now that is an awesome thought. I hope you have had a very fruitful liturgical year as a member of the family of St James and that you also found fulfilment in your own contribution.
