

Fr Jack

"An unexamined life is a life not worth living." So says Socrates, and this is what Jesus is calling us to do. "Repent." Look at your life. Is your life worth living? "To live is to change and to be perfect is to have changed often." Who said that? A fiver for the first correct answer. As Christians we need always to be reflecting on our life. Am I a passenger or a driver in the world? Do I make things happen in other people's lives or in my own? In the second reading Paul was reviewing his life and he said what he said because he believed the end of the world was near. Again get your priorities right. God, others and me. In that order..

BABIES FOR BAPTISM.

Tomorrow Monday evening at 7.30pm
there will be a meeting for parents of babies for baptism in the church.

SICK AND IN HOSPITAL

Hospital chaplains are getting scarcer by the day. So don't expect your parish priest or chaplain to know if you are in the hospital. If you would like them to visit, let them know. We are not God or telepathic.

LOURDES

Fr Stephen from OLOS is leading a pilgrimage to Lourdes next April. They will be going with Tangney Tours, from 15th to 19th April. Please note that persons wishing to travel with us should contact Tangney Tours directly to sign up (there is a deposit to be paid), rather than myself. The price is a very good one (flights plus full board) Our intention is to have a coach to take us from Peckham to Stansted (and back again on our return) for ease of transfer.

ASKI

We hope to have a speaker at all the masses next week.

Parents teach your children the Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help,
or sought thy intercession,
was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence
I fly unto thee,
O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.
To thee do I come,
before thee I stand,
sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.
