FR JACK

Last week God told Moses to erect a bronze snake and put it on a stand and tell the people to look at it and they would be cured. I told you to put a crucifix on the wall of your living room in a prominent place so that all in the house could look at it and be saved. We have got to face the things that are bothering us and face our good and bad situations head on and be cured. Do not kick them into touch. They will come back to haunt you. Or as Jesus says today we have got to die to the things in our life that are not good, wholesome or positive. Anything that is not giving you life, give it up and rise up to the greatness of who you are as a child of the Father.
