First Communion

18 children make their first holy communion today and we congratulate them in a very special way. Children be faithful, Jesus now lives in you in a very special and close way. Thanks to your parents for your work during the year but now the real work begins. Helping your child to grow in the knowledge and love of Jesus. Sincere thanks to all the Catechists, especially Paula for your commitment and help during the year. .

FR JACK

Jesus loves us. Now this can be a sentimental insipid "Oh Yes, I know that," statement. or it can be the joy of my life because I know Jesus loves me, but I also love him and I know that because I keep his commandments. Love is the most challenging word in the Bible. You see if I tell you to say your prayers every morning and evening, ok, that is not too difficult. But if you tell me LOVE someone. Then there is no limit to that challenge. That's why I believe many marriages do not work. Love is seen as an ok kind of statement and often people do not see the great responsibility it brings with it.
