Fr Jack

Any Christian who looks for the top place sure is arrogant. As Christians we are called to be slaves, servants to all, and when we get no thanks all we need to say is, "I just did my duty."

Not easy to go on and on serving but it is what we are called to do and it is only in doing it we will find complete happiness. You may be laughed at, made a fool of and even abused but don't lose heart, Jesus was there before you. Know that you are loved and it is in dying that you will rise.

The big lesson in life is never be scared of anyone or anything.

ADVENT/CHRISTMAS

Having parties during advent seems to destroy the whole experience of preparing for Christmas. Sorry, here goes for your diaries.

8th December 3pm to 8pm. Parish Do. Sit down meal £10

15th December 3pm to 8pm Family Do

18th December 10.30 to 2 Place at my Table.

18th December 7pm School Nativity Play

Peckham Pantry

Pecan wants us to collaborate with Peckham Park Pantry by hosting a weekly "pop-up" pantry. Members of Peckham Pantry pay £4.50 per shop, which gives access to fresh fruit and veg and store cupboard favourites – to the value of £15 or more. Our website has further details www.pecan.org.uk We are looking to collaborate with local churches and community organizations to establish three additional "pop-up" pantries in the area. Pecan will provide the necessary infrastructure and food supplies to run the pantry. All we ask from you is the provision of a venue, basic furniture.

How the Pantry Will Operate:

Day: We will agree on a suitable day of the week to host the pantry.

Food: Pecan will handle food deliveries.

Staff: The pantry will be staffed by Pecan team members and volunteers.

Marketing & Promotion: Pecan will manage all promotional efforts.

Could we have 2 or 3 volunteers to liaise with them please Fr Jack
