HOLY COMMUNION

Next Sunday at the 10am and 12noon Masses our young people will receive communion for the first time and a new beginning of their pilgrim journey.

Fr Jack

Congratulations to the Legion of Mary and the 35 new members who signed up last weekend. I wish you all the best and hopefully everyone can commit to apostolic work if only in a small way. This is a great way to show the face of the Catholic Church and the face of Jesus Christ.
Now in today's first reading the Apostles were left with a similar problem. Who is going to see after the widows and orphans, because they saw this as very much the responsibility of the Church. So again they got volunteers to help them. We did have a great SVP in the parish who did that work, but they have scattered. Now can we get some people again to carry on this work?

May the light of the Risen Lord strengthen this shared effort so that even in the darkest moments, violence and injustice do not have the final word, but a path towards a just and lasting peace is sought and pursued

Today is Safeguarding Sunday.

Please help to safeguard our children and vulnerable adults, in and outside our Parish. Also, those who are suffering domestic or any kind of abuse. See noticeboard for useful information and our Parish Safeguarding Representatives will be handing out leaflets. We should all take responsibility for caring for and protecting each other..
