Fr Jack

Welcome to our parish liturgy this weekend. Hope you had some sort of a break over the holiday period, even if only for a rest. Myself, I had a very active break in the Lake District with my Kenyan family from Manchester. Three daughters 22, 20 and 17. And in Ireland with my Irish family and back now to my Peckham family for more prayerful fun and activity. Hope you are ready.

As I have often said, to be a good Christian is to be a good human. This is spelt out very clearly for us today by Jesus. Simply talk to each other, and if you do fight, which we will, just be big enough to forgive and carry on. Get somebody to help you if needed. Couldn't be more Christian and couldn't be more human.

Today, spend a little time cultivating relationships offline, everybody is not on social media.

Fr Francis

Sincere thanks to Fr Francis for his work here over the month of August. He very much enjoyed himself and thanks to you for taking care of him, he gained 3 kilos.

2nd Collection next week
Will be for the Catholic Education Service

SYNODALITY

What Does It Mean For Us As Catholics?

I am baptised and as such I became a member of a family. As a member of that family have a right and a duty to pull my weight. Others have an expectation of me

How do we pray?

How do we build a better, more fulfilling relationship with God?

You are warmly invited to join an experiential programme called Teach Us to Pray facilitated by Southwark Diocesan Spirituality Commission. The programme will be online on Tuesdays, starting 6th October from 7pm to 8.15pm. Following 4 online sessions, there is an invitation to conclude the programme with an in-person Reflection Day in a Diocesan Retreat Centre on 5th or 12th December. There is no commitment to attend all sessions – join us whenever you can.
