Fr Jack

The Landlord in today's gospel was a good man. He planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a winepress and also built a tower for security. Then he handed it over to tenants.

Many of you will have rented beautiful rooms, flats or houses, where tenants could be happy, enjoy life and entertain friends. Then they wrecked them and left you with a bill and very angry.

Now who does that sound like? Surely God Himself.

He has given us everything. A beautiful world, plenty of food, prayer, the seven sacraments, the Church and each other. Everything we need to help us enjoy life, help each other and get to heaven.

Enjoy it and help others to enjoy it and get to heaven. What more do we need?

Our Lady of the Rosary

"We must pray, and not for ourselves, but for the world" Blessed Fulton Sheen

Pray

Archbishop Fulton Sheen's Mission Rosary was created to unite us across continents. Use our Mission Rosary reflections (mission.org.uk/mission-rosary) to pray the Rosary for our world today

One-minute missions

"Help me, O Lord, that my hands may be merciful and filled with good deeds"

St Faustina Kowalska

Connect

So many issues currently polarise our communities. What would it mean to reach across that divide with mercy, rather than judgement? Invite someone with different views from yours to have a conversation. Listen as though you might be wrong. Pope Leo

Baptism

Classes for all parents of babies continue Monday 5th September at 7pm.

FIRST COMMUNION

All children aged 7 plus should register with Agnieszka immediately.

Confirmation

Any young person in year 8 and above sign up for confirmation with Agnieszka.

Adoremus 2026

Saturday 10th October

The Adoremus Mass will be celebrated by Archbishop John at St George's Cathedral at 12:00 noon followed by a key note talk from Cardinal Timothy Radcliffe OP. This will be followed by a Eucharistic procession to Westminster Cathedral finishing with Benediction Mass and an all-night vigil. For more information:

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

We will meet on Thursdays at 7pm in the church for people interested in becoming Catholics next Easter. Existing Catholics wanting to know more about their faith are also welcome. See Fr Jack

Family Fast

If you did not manage to keep family fast on the Friday, you can still do it any day of your choice, however, if you did not contribute to the collection the envelopes are still available and the card reader (Dona) will be open for another two weeks under CAFOD
