The first reading must be the most beautiful reading ever written. A feast for all people. Rich food and fine vintage claret. God will swallow up darkness and death forever. God will wipe away all the tears from our eyes THIS IS OUR DAY. We have waited for Him and He will do it, and while we are waiting let us enjoy Mass for it is a forerunner to this day of the Lord. Come with a good heart, make other hearts happy and put your hear into it. Let us truly be a family for each other every Sunday. It is wonderful. We are invited to the party. That's obvious, but will I enjoy it? I've turned up in my work clothes and I am embarrassed. I am not dressed for the occasion. I want to hide. I will be there but I will not enjoy the experience. I have got to make an effort.

2nd Collection Next Week

"No baptised person is exempt from mission"

Pope Leo XIV

Tomorrow is World Mission Sunday. Let's ask ourselves; do I see distant mission as someone else's job? Sit with the Pope's words: "No baptised person is exempt from mission"

Reflection

An angel walks through the streets carrying a torch in one hand and a bucket of water in the other..When someone asks what she is doing, she replies:

"With the torch, I am going to burn down the mansions of heaven, and with the bucket of water, I am going to put out the fires of hell. Then we shall see who really loves God."
