Peckham & Nunhead Free Film Festival 2018

Open Bethlehem Documentary spanning 7 momentous years in the life of Bethlehem, revealing a city of astonishing beauty and political strife under occupation.

Friday 14th September, here in our own church, doors open 7.30pm for the sale of Bethlehem goods. The film begins at 8pm and there will questions from the floor at 9.30pm. Entry to the film will be free but we would like to have a collection at the end, to be divided between the Open Bethlehem campaign and Medical Aid for Palestinians.

Fr JACK

When we come to God's word we must come with an open mind and a needy heart. Apparently what 98% of motivational speakers say is Gospel based. They may not admit that, but if you look closely and listen attentively, you will also agree.

Life so often is boring because we see the obvious and never dream the dream.

Martin Luther had a dream and thank God, it has become a reality. We have come a long way and we still have a long way to go, so we need to dream on.

The science fiction of yesterday is today's reality, how much more so with our Heavenly Father.

With Him all things are possible.

LOVE IS THE ONE THING THAT CAN'T HURT YOUR NEIGHBOUR.

Peckham Festival

The festival is taking place on 15th and 16th September around Peckham from 12 noon to 6pm.

Children's Liturgy at 10am Mass only.

A new proposal for Sunday mornings, now that we have divided the day chapel into two areas. Hopefully we will eventually have Reservation of the Blessed Sacrament in the inner room.

First Communion children will go here for their liturgy with Paula and other catechists.

Pre communion children will be in the bigger room with Agnieszka and her team.

The post communion children (older children) will be in the small room as you come into the hall with Felicia and Perpetua.

Please let us try this beginning next Sunday, parents please note that children go into their groups as they come into church at 10am.

Sincere thanks to all these dedicated catechists who faithfully every week are there for your children.
