Fr Jack

We come to the end of the churches year and again FIRSTLY WE GIVE THANKS. I hope you have many blessings.

But take note of the parable. The men are given property. The boss obviously loves them implicitly. He trusts them and he gives them his property and then he goes and leaves the country. What a fantastic boss. He did not even look for IOUs. Now here is pure psychology at work.

Good teachers must first of all love their pupils, appreciate them and then he can tach them. And in a proper setting like that they will learn.

Lord have mercy on the nun who years ago, beat a child because he was naughty and said as she was doing so….."I will beat the love of God into you."

The first rule of any priest, preaching….Love the people in front of you. And if you don't go back to bed. God forgive me if I was ever guilty of preaching in anger.

When the master came back from being abroad, he called his workers. Many of them proved he was absolutely correct. He trusted them and they produced fantastic results.

Look at your own children/????

The sad thing about today's gospel is that many people will focus on the lazy one who never produced no fruit.

But Jesus loves him also.

The thing about the guys who produced the fruit is they got great joy on the journey, the joy of being productive and looking forward to the master's return.

THE JOY OF A JOB WELL DONE.

RED WEDNESDAY 18TH NOV. 26

RED Wednesday is an annual initiative led by Aid to the church in Need (ACN) to raise awareness of the persecution of Christians worldwide. It forms part of the broader week during which churches, cathedrals, monuments and public buildings across the world are illuminated in red.

388 million Christians world wide face high level of persecution or discrimination for their faith.

May we be faithful and give God thanks for the great freedom of religion we enjoy in this country.
